

The resident's first name or first initial and last name in combination with any of the following data elements that relate to the resident: social security number; student, military or passport identification number; driver's license number or identification card number; medical information, health insurance identification number; or biometric data.

Under the new law, the following two categories are added to the existing definition.

1. The resident's username or e-mail address in combination with a password or security questions and answers, that would permit access to an online account;
2. The resident's account number or credit or debit card number in combination with any required security code, or password that would permit access to that account.
